*Pursuant to the Rules of Procedures, the skeleton transcript must be filed within 30 days after the filing of the notice of appeal in the district court. No table was prepared on Notice of Appeal to Docketing in the Supreme Court.

There were two cases, United Nuclear vs. Allendale and Ledbetter vs. Webb, that took an unusually long period of time to get from the Notice of Appeal to the Mandate. UNC took 656 days and Ledbetter took 750 days.

The Supreme Court maintains a Miscellaneous Docket in which all matters are entered that are not assigned to the regular court docket. There were a total of 89 matters docketed, Habeas Corpus 27, Certiorari 11, Mandamus 19, Miscellaneous 32.

The Rules of Criminal Procedure for the district courts contain a provision for filing for an extension of time when a criminal case cannot be set down for trial by the district court judge within the six months time limit. The Children's Court rules contain provisions for extensions pertaining to adjudicatory hearings. The Metropolitan Court rules also contain provisions for requesting extensions for additional time to get a case docketed in the district court from the Metropolitan Court. All of these various motions are entered on a separate docket, files maintained and orders entered after the court rules on them. There were a total of 419 cases docketed in these categories, as follows:

Rule 37	266
Rule 60	84
Rule 46	58
Rule 71	3
Rule 41	5
Rule 39	3

SUPREME COURT
July 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986

Original proceedings, motions and petitions for extraordinary writs are heard by a panel of three Justices each Wednesday, unless otherwise directed by the Court. The panels for the hearings are assigned by the Chief Justice each month on a rotating basis. The Court disposes of these matters either by order or by written opinion. The Court considered a total of 138 matters on their montion-day docket.

Petitions for writ of certiorari are submitted to the full court without hearing. The remainder of the cases are placed on the General Calendar for disposition, and are set for oral argument or submitted to the court on briefs only.

The Clerk's Office administered the Compilation Commission through July 1, 1986. A Director was appointed by the Court on July 1, 1986. The Commission is charged with the publication and distribution of the New Mexico statutes and the New Mexico Reports. The statutes contain all of the laws of the State of New Mexico as they are passed by the Legislature each year. The New Mexico Reports contain all of the opinions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals.

The Compilation Commission has issued 982 full sets and 1,075 partial sets of the statutes to state agencies. The agencies pay for the updates each year, generating the funds necessary for the publication of the statutes.

Joe W. Wood.....Senior Judge
Thomas A. Donnelly.....Senior Judge
William W. Bivins.....Judge

Judge Wood retired January 10, 1986. On March 10, 1986, Judge Fruman was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The Prehearing Division had seven staff attorneys during the 74th Fiscal Year.

In an effort to deal with the Court's backlog of cases, the Court instituted a settlement conference program. (See Part X. of this report.) At the end of the 74th Fiscal Year, various other experiments to decrease the backlog were in the planning stages.

I. APPEALS FILED

During the 74th Fiscal Year, 723 new cases were filed. This was the third year of operation under the Supreme Court's order effective June 17, 1983, transferring jurisdiction of certain appeals to the Court of Appeals. The new cases were filed on the following monthly basis. Filings for the 73rd, 72nd, and 71st Fiscal Years are provided for comparison.

COURT OF APPEALS
July 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986

The Court had 570 open cases at the end of the 74th Fiscal Year.

The Court of Appeals operates under two sets of procedural rules adopted by the Supreme Court. Most civil cases proceed under the Rules of Appellate Procedure for Civil Cases. (NMSA 1978, Civ.App.R.) The second set of rules is the Rules of Appellate Procedure for Criminal, Children's Court, Domestic Relations Matters and Worker's Compensation Cases. (NMSA 1978, Crim., Child.Ct., Dom.Rel. & W/C App.R.)

Of the 723 new cases filed during the 74th Fiscal Year, a breakdown by category is as follows:

II. CALENDARING

Appeals under NMSA 1978, Crim., Child.Ct., Dom.Rel. & W/C App.R. are initiated with the court by the filing of a docketing statement, which includes a statement of the case, issues to be presented on appeal and a list of supporting authorities. The docketing statement is then screened by the Court's Prehearing Division, which makes recommendations to the judge assigned to calendaring duties.

The following table represents a breakdown of docketing statements filed during the past fiscal year:

Docketing Statements Filed

Criminal	234
Worker's Compensation	111
Domestic Relations	40
Children's Court	40
Total Filed	425

Once the docketing statement is filed and reviewed, the case may be placed on one of four calendars. General, legal and limited calendars contemplate a full briefing process. A case put on a summary calendar, proposing summary affirmance, reversal or dismissal, may be summarily disposed of by the court unless the party opposing the proposed disposition convinces the court to recalendar the case.

The following calendar assignments were rendered in criminal rules cases during the 74th Fiscal Year:

Cases Calendared	Civil	Criminal	Total
Summary	109	193	302
Limited	46	58	104
Legal	3	4	7
	158	255	413

The following calendar reassignments were rendered after the time had passed for parties opposing proposed calendarings to file memoranda in response on cases originally assigned to summary calendar.

Summary Cases	Civil	Criminal	Total
Reassigned to Non-Summary	35	53	88
Reassigned to Summary	18	45	63

Percent of cases disposed on summary (of cases calendared)	46%	55%	52%

III. DISPOSITIONS

In the 74th Fiscal Year, there were 532 cases disposed of, or approximately 76 dispositions per judge. Dispositions include opinions, dispositive orders, and transfers or certifications to the New Mexico Supreme Court. The 532 cases were disposed of as shown below with comparable figures for previous years:

	74th	73rd	72nd	71st
Transferred to Supreme Court	29	38	38	23

TOTALS	532	522	541	522

Of opinions disposing of cases, 320 cases were disposed of by 319 memorandum opinions. Memorandum opinions are not to be officially reported or published and are not to be cited as precedent. NMSA 1978, Crim., Child.Ct., Dom.Rel. & W/C App.R. 601(c) (Repl.Pamp.1983); NMSA 1978, SC Misc.R. 7(c) (Repl.Pamp.1984). 126 cases were disposed of by 121 formal opinions. The 446 cases disposed of by opinion are broken down by result in the following table:

IV. MOTIONS

1155 motions were filed and acted upon by the Court of Appeals during FY 74. They are broken down by category as follows:

Extensions granted		588
Briefs	423
Transcripts	34
Skeleton Transcripts	24
Docketing Statements	107
Motions for Oral Argument		25
Docket and Affirm		9

V. CERTIORARI STATUS REPORT

Notices pending at end of prior year	7
Notices filed during the 74th Fiscal Year	185
	192
Granted during the 74th Fiscal Year	67
Denied during the 74th Fiscal Year	112
Pending	13
	192

37 petitions for certiorari that were granted in the prior year were pending at the beginning of the 74th Fiscal Year. Of these and the 67 petitions for certiorari granted during the 74th Fiscal Year, 49 were later quashed and 30 opinions filed by the Supreme Court. Thus, 25 petitions on which certiorari had been granted were pending at the end of the 74th Fiscal Year.

VI. AVERAGE TIME TO DISPOSE OF APPEALS BY CATEGORY

The increase in the number of appeals filed during the past three years has resulted in a corresponding increase in the length of time for disposition of cases. The Rules of Appellate Procedure for Criminal, Children's Court, Domestic Relations Matters, and Worker's Compensation Cases require a taped transcript of proceedings for cases placed on the limited calendar; no transcript of proceedings is filed in cases placed on the summary or legal calendar. The Rules of Appellate Procedure for Civil Cases permit a written transcript of proceedings in all cases. The following tables depict the average time to dispose of appeals broken down by category under the two sets of rules. The time for issuance of mandate has not been computed. The rules state that mandate shall issue within 20 days of the final order in criminal rules cases (NMSA 1978, Crim., Child.Ct., Dom.Rel. & W/C App.R. 604 (Repl. Pamp. 1983) or within 30 days of the final order in civil rule cases (NMSA 1978, Civ.App.R. 20 (Supp.1985) but because of motions for rehearing and petitions for certiorari to the Supreme Court, the time varies. The time for ruling on petitions for certiorari is controlled by the Supreme Court.

Submission to Opinion	66
Total	208

*n.1 Two atypical cases were not counted on this line. In one case, trial counsel was relieved of the obligation of filing the docketing statement. The Public Defender Department was ordered to prepare the docketing statement more than eight months after the notice of appeal was filed. The other case was originally summarily affirmed by memorandum opinion but was reinstated and placed on a limited calendar on order of the Supreme Court. Inclusion of these two cases would change the average number of days to 63.

*n.2 One atypical case was not counted on this line. Trial counsel for defendant failed to file a docketing statement; the Public Defender Department was appointed counsel for defendant more than eight months after the notice of appeal was filed. Inclusion of this one case would change the average number of days on this line to 53.

*n.3 One atypical case was not counted on this line. The appeal was held in abeyance pending remand to district court upon motion by appellant. Inclusion of this one case would change the average number of days on this line to 56.

*n.4 One atypical case was not counted on this line. The case was originally summarily dismissed but was reversed and remanded to the Court of Appeals by the Supreme Court. The record was not received by the Court of Appeals until after remand. Inclusion of this one case would change the average number of days on this line to 117.

*n.5 Average number of days were counted in the cases the court disposed of by opinion. Only 27 miscellaneous civil cases (category 5) were decided in this fiscal year. 471 cases remained pending and some of these would have 539 days as the average number of days from issue to submission.

As the tables show, while the court continues to dispose of cases on summary calendar quickly, disposition time for other cases which go to opinion is increasing. The increase is attributable to the caseload increase which the court has experienced. (See also parts VII.(C) and (D) of this report.) The Court places cases in five priority categories as follows:

Category 1:
- a. Interlocutory Appeals
  - i. Criminal
  - ii. Civil

Category 2: Criminal

Category 3: Worker's Compensation

Category 4:

a. Domestic Relations cases with custody/support issues
b. Unemployment compensation

Category 5:

a. Administrative Appeals
b. Tort
    i. Medical Malpractice
    ii. Other Tort
c. Property
d. Probate
e. Water
f. Domestic Relations without custody/support issues
g. Other Category 5.

Due to the court's backlog of pending cases, most of the cases that the court was able to decide were in categories 1 through 4.

VII. HEARINGS

A. There were 16 days of motions hearings involving 23 cases.

B. The Court held 8 days of oral arguments involving 11 cases. Oral arguments were held in Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and Roswell.

C. Judges of the Court of Appeals participated in 8 Supreme Court cases in FY 74.

D. Judges of the Court of Appeals sat as District Judges in 7 cases in FY 74.

X. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

Pursuant to authority granted by the New Mexico Supreme Court on July 19, 1985, the Court of Appeals adopted procedures for voluntary settlement conferences. The purpose of a settlement conference is to expedite the appeal process and to assist the parties and counsel in effecting settlement at the earliest possible stage. If that cannot be done, then a secondary goal is to narrow the issues. The program is voluntary and is only used where all parties agree to a settlement conference. The judge assigned to handle the settlement conference shall not be a member of the panel assigned to decide the case should it not settle. During the 74th Fiscal Year, five cases were assigned for settlement conferences on the court's own motion. Of these five cases, two resulted in settlement and were dismissed by order. Thereafter, during the first quarter of the 75th Fiscal Year, seven more cases have been assigned for settlement conference at the request of the parties. Of these, four have settled and been dismissed by order. The average time spent on settling these cases was as follows:

	74th FY	75th FY	Combined
Judges' time	5.1 hours	6.2 hours	5.7 hours
Staff time	2.8 hours	2.8 hours	2.8 hours
